

Yamaha U30BL Upright Piano and What Should Buyers Look For?

Buying a used acoustic piano involves several decisions. Age matters, yet condition, touch and tone deserve equal attention. The Yamaha U30BL upright piano offers an interesting option for players who want a full-size Japanese upright with a professional design.

A Full-Size Yamaha U3

The U30BL models belong to the full-size U3 series. Yamaha produced this model range in Japan between April 1987 and September 1989. Lyra Pianos currently lists three U30BL pianos from this period.

The store describes these instruments as being in brand-new condition inside and outside. Each piano also features a smooth, responsive touch and a rich, deep tone.

Key Specifications:

- 131 cm high
- 153 cm wide
- 64 cm deep
- 235 kg weight
- Polished ebony finish
- Made in Japan
- Smooth, responsive touch
- Rich, deep tone

Who Should Consider the U30BL?

Lyra Pianos lists the Yamaha U30BL upright piano as suitable for beginners and advanced pianists. A student gets an instrument with room to support musical development, while an experienced player gets a full-size upright with a substantial playing character.

The purchase also includes several services through Lyra Pianos:

- Standard delivery up to four steps in metro areas
- One free tuning within six months
- New matching piano bench
- 10-year comprehensive warranty
- Interstate delivery options

Try Before Making a Decision

Specifications tell buyers about the piano, but playing it tells them far more. Sit at the keyboard and test different dynamics. Play a quiet passage, then try stronger chords. Listen closely to the tone and pay attention to how the keys respond.

The Yamaha U30BL upright piano deserves consideration from anyone comparing quality used Yamaha uprights. Visit Lyra Pianos Shop to explore the available instruments and enquire about the current models.
